

Off to GD next weekend

GD is having an Open Day next weekend. As my chassis is probably in the jig right now i thought it would be nice to visit them. Combined with a small trip through the UK, sounds like a nice little holiday.

I hope I can get a look at my chassis there and shoot some pictures of it. Obviously the planned 'ride-along' in the GD427 is something i look forward too also.

The Garage is more or less 'done', just planning for some racedeck stuff on the floor a bit later

Oh, this is not how it actually looks at the moment (it's full of stuff again), but for remembering how it looks empty and clean and all. . .
